

I support Pulver.com's petition that their FWD service is not to be ruled as being "Telecommunications" or a "Telecommunications Service" as defined by the Telecom Act of 1996. The FWD service has no interconnection with the other services ruled as "Telecommunications" or "Telecommunications Service" and therefore does not represent a service that should be regulated. The FWD service is an online directory only.